

CLASSROOM CARNIVAL

Worksheet - I (Chapter 1 to 3)

Name: Class: Roll No:

A. Multiple Choice Questions. Tick (✓) the correct option:

- Harry could not eat chocolates because
(a) He did not have money. (b) His mother did not allow him.
(c) He had a toothache. (d) None of these
- Roshan Lal couldn't move forward.
(a) He had pain in his legs. (b) He was tired.
(c) His cycle got punctured. (d) None of these
- Roshan Lal asked the man to
(a) Carry the fruit baskets (b) Pull the cycle along
(c) Call the mechanic (d) None of these
- What does the poet want to do with the smiles?
(a) Keep them with her to be happy. (b) Spread it to others.
(c) Keep them in a box. (d) None of these
- The poet wants to pack sorrows in a box to
(a) drop the box outside. (b) hire a giant.
(c) turn them into joys. (d) None of these

B. Answer the following questions.

- How did Harry feel when he ate the first piece of chocolate?
.....
.....
- How did his feelings change when he took the last piece of the chocolate?
.....
.....
- How did Roshan Lal feel when the man did not accept ten rupees? What did he do?
.....
.....
- What does the poetess want to do with frowns?
.....
.....

5. Why do you think the poet needs to hire a giant?

.....
.....

C. Answer the questions in reference to the context.

1. Harry was delighted and in all his excitement, he entered the chocolate shop for the first time.

(a) Describe the shop Harry entered.

.....

(b) How did Harry feel when he entered the chocolate shop?

.....

(c) Why was it the first time that Harry could enter the shop?

.....

2. “How did you manage to get it? I’ve been eating twenty chocolates a day, I could never get anything except a complimentary chocolate.”

(a) Who said this to whom? Why did he say so?

.....

(b) Why had he eaten twenty chocolates a day?

.....

(c) What does he mean by ‘complimentary’ chocolate?

.....

3. “He got off the cycle and began to drag it along.”

(a) Who is ‘he’? Why did he start dragging the bicycle?

.....

(b) What did ‘he’ do after this?

.....

(c) Where was ‘he’ going? Why?

.....

4. “To hold all the frowns I meet,
I would gather them, every one,
From nursery, school and street;
Then, folding and holding I’d pack them in,
And turn the monster key”

(a) From where would the poet gather frowns?

.....

(b) Explain ‘folding and holding I’d pack them in.’

.....

D. Complete the following table by giving evidences from the story Million Dollor Chocolate for the following statements.

	Statement	Evidence
1.	Harry's mother could not refuse his request this time.
2.	The shopkeeper knew Harry.
3.	Harry did not know anything about the prize.
4.	The shopkeeper was a helpful man.

E. After reading the story, (The chief's Justice) we can associate various qualities with the characters in the story. Describe the qualities of the following.

- The man (labourer)
- Roshan Lal (fruit seller)
- The Village (Chief)

F. Choose the suitable option to make sentences as instructed.

- Ranikhet. (declarative)
 - Did the man drag the bicycle upto
 - The man dragged the bicycle upto
 - Drag the bicycle upto
 - How could he drag the bicycle upto
- rupees then? (interrogative)
 - I will give you hundred
 - How mean of you to charge hundred
 - Do you want hundred
 - Take this hundred

G. Read the words given in the table and split them to complete it. You can check your answers in the dictionary.

Word	Syllable	Number of Syllables
convince	con - vince	2
sweetmeat
complimentary perplexed
cram extraordinarily		