

CLASSROOM CARNIVAL

Worksheet - III (Chapter 8 to 10)

Name: Class: Roll No.:

A. Multiple Choice Questions. Tick (✓) the correct option:

1. What was the profession of the elder sister's husband?
(a) Farming (b) Trading (c) Cobbling
2. What did Pahom boast he was not afraid of?
(a) God (b) Devil (c) Village Headman
3. What does the mind have to be free of?
(a) Thoughts (b) Fear (c) Sorrow
4. What bird did Jody see in the forest?
(a) Nightingale (b) Owl (c) Buzzard
5. Where did the fawn smell like?
(a) Fresh blood (b) Grass (c) Flowers

B. Answer the following questions.

1. How did Pahom arrange for buying forty acres of land?
.....
.....
2. What kind of freedom does the poet desire for his country?
.....
.....
3. What are the things that an ideal world would possess?
.....
.....
4. How did Jody feed the fawn?
.....
.....

C. Answer the questions in reference to the context.

1. "We may live roughly, but at least we are free from anxiety," she said.
(a) Whose words are these?
.....

(b) To what question or statement is the person responding thus?

.....

(c) What does 'living roughly' refer to?

.....

2. “Where the mind is led forward by Thee into ever-widening thought and action.”

(a) Who does 'Thee' refer to?

.....

(b) Where is the mind being led forward?

.....

(c) What does 'ever-widening thought and action' mean?

.....

3. “I’ll carry you after I get my breath.”

(a) Whose words are these?

.....

(b) Who does 'you' refer to?

.....

(c) Why is the speaker out of breath?

.....

D. Read the statements and arrange them in the order they happened:

1. Jody finds some milk and feeds the fawn, enjoying the sensation of its wet mouth sucking his fingers.

2. Jody cuts to the right and arrived at the clearing where the doe's body lay.

3. Jody lifts the fawn up and carries it back home.

4. Jody is delighted when he spots the fawn, all the more so, when it doesn't run away.

5. Mill-wheel checks with Jody to make sure that the boy knew the directions well before setting off.

6. Jody was delighted to notice that the fawn followed him willingly.

7. Mill-wheel and Jody set off in a horse to look for the fawn.

8. Penny is glad that Jody had managed to find the fawn.

E. Fill in the correct compound words in the sentences below.

threadbare

landmark

outright

spendthrift

needlework

overpower

1. My grandmother did the on the pillowcase.

2. He wore the only coat he possessed even though it was

3. The police tried to the robber, but he wriggled out and ran.

4. My friend, Sheela, is a
5. The nearest to my house is the children's clinic.
6. The essay was so badly written that it was rejected by the editor.

F. Unscramble the letters below to find other words that have similar meaning as the word 'fear'.

- | | | | | | |
|----------|---|-------|--------|---|-------|
| GTIRHF | : | | REROTR | : | |
| STDREISS | : | | EDDAR | : | |
| MRAAL | : | | ACNIP | : | |
| HRORRO | : | | ERCAS | : | |

G. Read the sentences. Reflect on each of them by answering the question.

Note: Make use of a dictionary for better understanding.

1. The clandestine operations of the thieves were thwarted thanks to the guard's presence of mind.
What is a clandestine operation?
2. The company was looking for youngsters with courage and zeal.
What is zeal?
3. Even though they were her cousins, Sheela felt alienated in their midst.
When does one feel alienated?
4. It was up to the attorney to win the case for Joseph.
What is the job of an attorney?
5. There was no consensus on who should be elected as a party president.
What is a consensus?

H. For each of the following sentences, decide if the highlighted word or phrase is a participle, a gerund, or an infinitive.

1. The children's singing and laughing woke me up.
2. Jenny likes to dance in the rain.
3. There are many ways of breaking a heart.
4. A broken heart will mend over time.
5. Happiness is having a large, loving, caring, close-knit family in another city.
6. It is important for him to run every day.

I. Put the correct punctuation marks in the following sentences.

1. Hmmm its a tough decision but Ill take the red one
2. Certainly you may borrow my book Gary
3. Shakespeare said it best Alls well that ends well
4. I do the laundry make dinner and pick up the kids I should receive a medal for all of these chores