What way does the Wind come? What way does he go?
He rides over the water, and over the snow,
Through wood and through vale; and o're rocky height,
Which the goat cannot climb, takes his sounding flight...

He will suddenly stop in a cunning nook,
And rings a sharp larum; but, if you should look,
There's nothing to see but a cushion of snow
Round as a pillow, and whiter than milk,
And softer than if it were covered with silk...

Hark! over the roof he makes a pause,
And growls as if he would fix his claws
Right in the slates, and with a huge rattle
Drive them down, like men in a bottle.
