Worksheet - XII

Name: Class: Roll No:

A. What's your side of story? Read the situation in each comic strip and write your opinion in the blank bubble.

1 Does punctuation matter?

It's the ideas that matter, not the punctuation.

Some types of punctuation are more important than others.

NO

Readers can be confused if you don't punctuate correctly.

As long as you use full stops and capital letters, it will make sense.

LIA

2 Why to shout?

People shout too much in the playground - we should only shout if we are angry,

You need to shout if you want to get your own way.

Shouting helps people to understand you better.

You need to shout if you want people to listen

3

Why to use repetition in poetry?

We should use repetition in poems because it makes it easier to join in.

There was an old lady who swallowed a fly.
I don't know why she swallowed a fly,
Perhaps she'll die.

There was an old lady who swallowed a spider, that wriggled and jiggled and tickled inside her, she swallowed the spider to catch the fly.

I don't know why she swallowed a fly,
perhaps she'll die.

There was an old lady who swallowed a bird...

We shouldn't use repetition because it makes poems dull and predictable.

We should use repetition because it helps to make some lines stand out.

Only lazy poets use repetition.
